

Definition of Non-Resident	1) any person other than a resident; 2) a Malaysia citizen who has obtained permanent resident status in other country or territory outside Malaysia and is residing outside Malaysia; 3) an overseas branch, a subsidiary, regional office, sales office or representative office of a resident company; or 4) Embassies, Consulates, High Commissions, supranational or international organizations. For the avoidance of doubt, this includes Malaysian Embassies, Consulates and High Commissions.
----------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------