 - f) In the event the trustee fails to comply with the above clauses, the Bank has the right to suspend and/or close the trust account.

PART B: SPECIFIC TERMS AND CONDITIONS GOVERNING SPECIFIC ACCOUNTS

Part B: Specific Terms and Conditions Governing Specific Account contained herein shall be read together with the Part A: General Terms and Conditions.

A. JOINT ACCOUNT

1. The Bank can collect for the credit into the Account, cheques and other instruments belonging to or payable to any or all of the Joint Account Holders and to honour all requests for withdrawal or debits of any moneys standing to the credit of the Joint Account given in respect of the said Joint Account.
2. In the event of death of any or either of the Joint Account Holder, the Joint Account shall be frozen immediately by the Bank upon it being notified in writing of the death of the said Joint Account Holder. Any balance remaining standing to the credit of the Joint Account can only be paid to the survivor(s) Joint Account Holder:-
 - i) subject to statutory compliance (if required) with the relevant legislation prevailing at such time; and
 - ii) subject to the Bank being indemnified by the survivor Joint Account Holder against any claim that may be made against the Bank as a result of the payment.
3. Upon the Bank's confirmation that (a) an act of bankruptcy has been committed by any or either of the Joint Account Holder or (b) a bankruptcy petition has been filed against any or either of the Joint Account Holder or (c) a Receiving Order and/or Adjudicating Order have been made against any or either of the Joint Account Holder, the Joint Account shall be frozen by the Bank immediately. Any balance remains standing to the credit of the Joint Account can only be withdrawn by the survivor Joint Account Holder upon the joint instructions from (i) the official assignee or trustee in bankruptcy and (ii) the survivor Joint Account Holder, and shall be subjected to the Bank being indemnified by the survivor Joint Account Holder against any claim that may be made against the Bank as a result of such withdrawal.
4. Upon the Bank's receipt of a certified medical report that any or either of the Joint Account Holder is of unsound mind, the Joint Account shall be frozen immediately. If a receiver is appointed by the Court for the mentally incapacitated party, any balance remaining in the Joint Account shall be transferred to a new account to be opened jointly under the name of the receiver and the survivor Joint Account Holder and a fresh mandate shall be obtained by the Bank in respect of the Account.
5. If the Bank is in doubt of any instructions given by any one or more of the Joint Account Holder in relation to the operation of the Joint Account, the Bank shall be entitled to request for a written confirmation from all of the Joint Account Holders before carrying out such instructions.
6. All Joint Account Holders shall be jointly and severally liable for all transactions arising from such instructions. If the Bank receives contradictory instructions, the Bank may choose to act only on the mandate of all the Joint Account Holders and shall not be responsible or liable for any losses, claims, demands, proceedings, costs, expenses and damage whatsoever caused by the Bank's refusal to act without such mandate.
7. The Joint Account Holder shall jointly and severally undertake to indemnify and hold the Bank harmless against losses, claims, demands, proceedings, costs, expenses and damage whatsoever and whenever incurred arising from any instruction issued by any of the Joint Account Holder.
8. If a personal account or joint account remains inactive continuously for 1 year or above, such account shall be classified as dormant account. Any money in a personal account or joint account shall be treated as unclaimed money in accordance with the Unclaimed Money Act 1965 if no transaction has been conducted on such accounts for 7 years or above continuously. Service charges shall be imposed by the Bank at the rate which shall be determined by the Bank at its absolute discretion.

B. PARTNERSHIP ACCOUNT

7. Only an Account Holder can authorize the Bank to stop payment of a cheque and such instructions must be in writing and shall contain the following information:-
 - a) the account number;
 - b) the cheque number;
 - c) the date of the cheque;
 - d) the payee's name; and
 - e) the amount drawn on the cheque.
8. Any instructions to stop payment of cheques will be effective only upon receipt of such notification from the Bank.

9. If an instruction to stop payment of a cheque is received over the telephone or by other forms of telecommunication, such instruction must be followed up with a written instruction to the Bank. If the cheque is presented for payment before the written instruction is received, the cheque should be returned to the Account Holder.
10. The Bank shall not be responsible for any delay or omission in carrying out the Account Holder's instructions to stop payment of cheques and the Bank reserves its rights not to entertain stop payment instructions which have been fully and irrevocably paid.
11. The Account Holder shall take all precautions in drawing cheques so as to prevent forgery and/or any fraudulent or unauthorized use of cheque form(s) or cheque books issued to the Account Holder. In the event any loss is occasioned by the Account Holder's failure to take the aforesaid precautions or to ensure sufficiency of funds, the Bank shall be exempted from, and/or be fully indemnified by the Account Holder against liability for any loss arising out of any forgery, fraudulent, unauthorized use and/or insufficiency of funds resulting in dishonouring of the said cheques. In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Account Holder shall take the following precautions:-
 - a) with respect to the custody, control and use of the cheque requisition forms and cheque books, the Account Holder shall inform the Bank immediately upon the discovery of the loss of cheque books or cheque requisition forms;
 - b) to ensure that all the cheques are so drawn as to prevent additions or alterations after the same are issued, and in particular all blank spaces should be completed. All alterations of cheques including those performed by electronic typewriters or printers must be countersigned by the persons authorized under the mandate given to the Bank and the Bank may at its absolute discretion and without any liability on its part dishonor cheques which have been altered notwithstanding the fact that such alterations are countersigned by the persons authorized under the mandate given to the Bank;
 - c) if the cheques forms are presigned whether by one or more of the persons authorized under the mandate given to the Bank or signed in blank by the Account Holder and are delivered for the purpose of enabling any person to convert the same into valid bills or cheques (as defined in the Bills of Exchange Act 1949, as amended from time to time), such a person shall be deemed to have the Account Holder's full authority to complete the mandate on behalf of the Account Holder and that the Account Holder shall be precluded from denying that the said cheques had been completed without authority or from raising any claims whatsoever for any loss incurred by the Account Holder;
 - d) the Account Holder shall ensure that there are sufficient funds in the Accounts before drawing cheques.
12. All cheques remain the property of the Bank and upon closure of the Current Account; all unused cheques which were issued to the Account Holder shall forthwith be returned to the Bank.
13. The Bank is authorized and requested by the Account Holder to honour and comply with all cheques, drafts, orders to pay, bills of exchange or promissory notes expressed to be drawn, signed, accepted, indorsed or made on behalf of the Account Holder drawn upon or addressed to or made payable by the Bank whether the Accounts are in credit or in debit or may become overdrawn in consequence or otherwise.
14. The Account Holder further authorized and requested the Bank to honour and comply with any written instructions (duly signed by the Account Holder) to withdraw any or all money on any of the Account Holder's account and the Account Holder's written instructions to deliver, dispose of or deal with any securities, deeds or documents or other properties which are held by the Bank under its Accounts or in possession of the Bank whether by way of security or safe custody or otherwise.
