Key Risks

5. What are the key risks associated with this Fund?

Market Risk

Market risk refers to the possibility that an investment will lose value because of a general decline in financial markets, due to economic, political and/or other factors, which will result in a decline in the Fund's NAV.

Manager Risk

This risk refers to the day-to-day management of the Fund by the Manager which will impact the performance of the Fund. For example, investment decisions undertaken by the Manager, as a result of an incorrect view of the market or any non-compliance with internal policies, investment mandate, the Deed, relevant law or guidelines due to factors such as human error or weaknesses in operational process and systems, may adversely affect the performance of the Fund.

Target Fund Manager Risk

The Target Fund (which the Fund invests in) is managed by Manulife Investment Management (Hong Kong) Limited. It is important to note that the Manager has no control over investment management techniques and operational controls of the Target Fund. Thus, mismanagement of the Target Fund (i.e. breach of its prescribed investment restriction due to human error) may potentially expose the Fund (as an investor of the Target Fund) to additional risk. Should such a situation arise, the Manager may propose to invest in other alternative collective investment scheme that is consistent with the objective of the Fund provided always that the approval of the unit holders has been obtained.

Currency Risk

Although USD Class has identical currency denomination as the Share Class AA of the Target Fund, it is still subject to currency risk as the Target Fund's investment portfolio consists of securities denominated in the non-USD currencies, which may fall in value against USD resulting the fall of returns of the USD Class.

As for a hedged Class, the Class itself provides mitigation to the currency risk arising from the difference between the currency denomination of the Class and the Base Currency. While we aim to fully hedge the currency risk for a hedged Class, you should note that it may not entirely eliminate currency risk.

In addition, you should note that as a result of hedging, a hedged Class will not be able to enjoy the full benefits of the currency movement in the event a favourable movement of the currency denomination of the hedged Class against the Base Currency. You should also note that hedging incurs costs, in which will impact the NAV of a hedged Class.

Country Risk

Investments of the Fund in any country may be affected by changes in the economic and political climate, restriction on currency repatriation or other developments in the law or regulations of the countries in which the Fund invests in. For example, the deteriorating economic condition of such countries may adversely affect the value of the investments undertaken by the Fund in those affected countries. This in turn may cause the NAV of the Fund or prices of units to fall.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk refers to a security which could not be transacted in a timely manner. In the context of the Fund (which invests in the Target Fund), liquidity risk is associated with the Target Fund's ability to meet the Fund's redemption request in a timely manner. If the Target Fund fails to meet the Fund's redemption request, it may jeopardize the Fund's ability to meet its own unit holders' redemption request.

Specific Risks associated with the Target Fund

- Emerging Markets Risks
- Political and Regulatory Risks
- Natural Resources Sector Risk
- Currency Risk
- Liquidity and Volatility Risks
- Taxation Risk
- Financial Derivative Instruments Other Than for Investment Purpose
