RHB GLOBAL MACRO OPPORTUNITIES FUND

2. INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

The Fund aims to achieve capital appreciation above its benchmark by investing in one target fund, i.e. JPMorgan Investment Funds – Global Macro Opportunities Fund.

3. INVESTMENT STRATEGY

3.1 Investment Strategy

The Fund will invest principally in the C (Acc) – USD (hedged) shares of the Target Fund.

The investment objective of the Target Fund is to achieve capital appreciation in excess of its cash benchmark by investing primarily in securities, globally, using financial derivative instruments where appropriate.

Although the Fund is not actively managed, the investments of the Fund will be rebalanced from time to time to meet Unit sales and Unit redemption transactions. This is to enable the proper and efficient management of the Fund.

The Manager does not adopt any temporary defensive positions for the Fund in response to adverse market, economic, political or any other condition as such defensive strategies are expected to be implemented at the Target Fund's level when deemed necessary by the Target Fund's manager. The Manager does not adopt any temporary defensive positions for the Fund as this will allow the Fund to best track the performance of the Target Fund. It also follows that if the Target Fund fails to adopt a successful defensive position in response to adverse market and economic positions, there is a risk that the Fund will mirror the Target Fund's negative performance, if any. Also, investors should note that at all times the Fund is always subject to currency risk.

This Fund is a feeder fund that invests at least 95% of NAV in the Target Fund. The risk management strategies and techniques employed will be at the Target Fund level.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein, the Manager may, in consultation with the Trustee and with the approval of the Unit Holders, replace the Target Fund with another fund of a similar objective if, in the Manager's opinion, the Target Fund no longer meets the Fund's investment objective, or when acting in the interest of the Unit Holders.

When appropriate for a Class, the Manager may trade in financial derivatives, which include but is not limited to forwards and swaps, for the purpose of hedging the currency risk exposure (if any) of a Class. The benefit of any upside of currency movement is limited when hedging the Class exposure to foreign currency risk as the primary interest is to protect the value of the Class vis-à-vis its exposure to foreign currency.

3.2 Asset Allocation

At least 95% of NAV

- Investments in the C (Acc) - USD (hedged) shares of the Target Fund.

2% to 5% of NAV

Investments in liquid assets including money market instruments and Placements of Cash.

3.3 Benchmark

ICE 1 month EUR LIBOR.

RHB GLOBAL MACRO OPPORTUNITIES FUND

The benchmark chosen best represents the investments of the Target Fund. An investor may refer to the Manager for this benchmark indicator.

The risk profile of the Fund is different from the risk profile of the benchmark.

3.4 Leverage

The Fund may borrow cash on a temporary basis (i.e. not more than one (1) month) from financial institutions to meet redemption requests. Such borrowing shall not exceed ten (10) percent of the NAV at the time the borrowing is incurred and assets of the Fund may only be pledged as collateral with financial institutions for borrowing of this nature.

4. INFORMATION ON THE TARGET FUND

4.1 About the Target Fund

The Target Fund was launched on 23 October 1998 while the JPM C (acc) – USD (hedged) share class of the Target Fund was launched on 31 March 2016. Before 14 December 2015, the Target Fund was known as JPMorgan Investment Funds – Global Capital Appreciation Fund.

The Target Fund is one of the sub-funds of the JPMorgan Investment Funds. JPMorgan Investment Funds is an umbrella structured open-ended investment company organised under Luxembourg law as a société anonyme and qualifies as a société d'investissement à capital variable ("SICAV"). JPMorgan Investment Funds has been authorised under Part 1 of the Luxembourg law of 17 December 2010 relating to collective investment undertakings and qualifies as an undertaking for collective investment in transferable securities ("UCITS") under the EC Directive 2009/65 of 13 July 2009. Both the umbrella fund, i.e. JPMorgan Investment Funds and its sub-fund, i.e. the Target Fund are domiciled in Luxembourg and are regulated by the Luxembourg Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier ("CSSF").

The board of directors of JPMorgan Investment Funds has designated JPMorgan Asset Management (Europe) S.à r.l. ("JPMAM Europe") as management company of JPMorgan Investment Funds to perform investment management, administration and marketing functions of JPMorgan Investment Funds. JPMAM Europe is regulated by the CSSF.

JPMAM Europe may delegate the investment management functions of the Target Fund to the Investment Managers i.e. JPMAM UK, JPMIM New York, JPMAM Japan, JFAM Hong Kong and JPMAM Singapore. JPMAM UK is regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) of the UK. JPMIM New York is regulated by the Securities and Exchange Commission of the United States of America. JPMAM Japan is regulated by Japanese Financial Services Agency. JFAM Hong Kong is regulated by the Securities and Futures Commission Hong Kong. JPMAM Singapore is regulated by the Monetary Authority of Singapore.

J.P. Morgan Bank Luxembourg S.A. has been appointed as custodian of all the JPMorgan Investment Funds' assets, comprising securities, money market instruments, cash and other assets. J.P. Morgan Bank Luxembourg S.A. is regulated by the CSSF and has engaged in banking activities since its incorporation on 16 May 1973.

4.2 Investment objective and strategy of the Target Fund

The investment objective of the Target Fund is to achieve capital appreciation in excess of its cash benchmark by investing primarily in securities, globally using financial derivative instruments where appropriate.

RHB GLOBAL MACRO OPPORTUNITIES FUND

The Target Fund will primarily invest, either directly or through the use of financial derivative instruments, in equity securities, commodity index instruments, convertible securities, debt securities, deposits with credit institutions and money market instruments. Issuers of these securities may be located in any country, including emerging markets.

The Target Fund may invest in China A-shares via the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect program.

The Target Fund may invest in below investment grade and unrated debt securities.

The Target Fund uses an investment process based on macroeconomic research to identify global investment themes and opportunities. It has a flexible approach to asset allocation and may use both long and short positions (achieved through the use of financial derivative instruments) to vary exposure to different asset classes and markets in response to market conditions and opportunities. Allocations may vary significantly and exposure to certain markets, sectors or currencies may be concentrated from time to time.

The Target Fund may invest in financial derivative instruments to achieve its investment objective, subject always to the investment restrictions and limits of the UCITS guidelines. Such instruments may also be used for the purposes of hedging. These instruments may include but are not limited to futures, options, contracts for difference, total return swaps, selected over-the-counter derivatives and other financial derivative instruments. The Target Fund's expected level of leverage is 500% of the net asset value of the Target Fund, although it is possible that this expected level of leverage may be significantly exceeded from time to time. It should be noted that the Target Fund does not use leverage (borrowed capital) as part of its investment strategy.

The Target Fund may also invest in UCITS and other undertaking for collective investments.

The Target Fund may invest in assets denominated in any currency and currency exposure may be hedged.

The reference currency of the Target Fund is Euro.

4.3 Risk management process of the Target Fund

JPMorgan Investment Funds employs a risk management process which enables it to monitor and measure at any time the risk of the positions and their contribution to the overall risk profile of the Target Fund. Furthermore, JPMorgan Investment Funds employs a process for accurate and independent assessment of the value of over-the-counter ("OTC") derivative instruments which is communicated to the CSSF on a regular basis in accordance with Luxembourg law.

As stated above, the Target Fund may invest in financial derivative instruments and such instruments may also be used for efficient portfolio management and/or hedging purposes.

The global exposure relating to financial derivative instruments is calculated taking into account the current value of the underlying assets, counterparty risk, foreseeable market movements and the time available to liquidate the positions.

JPMorgan Investment Funds shall ensure that the global exposure of the Target Fund relating to financial derivative instruments does not exceed the total net assets of the Target Fund. The Target Fund's overall risk exposure shall consequently not exceed 200% of its total net assets. In addition, this overall risk exposure may not be increased by more than 10% by means of temporary borrowings so that the Target Fund's overall risk exposure may not exceed 210% of the Target Fund's total net assets under any circumstances.

RHB GLOBAL MACRO OPPORTUNITIES FUND

The Target Fund's global exposure to financial derivative instruments is measured by the absolute Value-at-Risk (VaR) methodology.

VaR is a means of measuring the potential loss to the Target Fund due to market risk and is expressed as the maximum potential loss at a 99% confidence level over a one month time horizon. The holding period for the purpose of calculating global exposure is one month. In respect of the Target Fund, VaR is calculated using an absolute approach. The absolute VaR approach calculates the Target Fund's VaR as a percentage of the Target Fund's net asset value and is measured against an absolute limit of 20% as defined by the European Securities and Markets Authority guidelines.

The Target Fund's expected level of leverage is 500% of the net asset value of the Target Fund. The expected level of leverage for the Target Fund is an indicative level and is not a regulatory limit. The Target Fund's actual level of leverage might significantly exceed the expected level from time to time however the use of financial derivatives instruments will remain consistent with the Target Fund's investment objective and risk profile and comply with its VaR limit. In this context leverage is a measure of the aggregate derivative use and is calculated as the sum of the notional exposure of the financial derivative instruments used, without the use of netting arrangements. As the calculation neither takes into account whether a particular financial derivative instrument increases or decreases investment risk, nor takes into account the varying sensitivities of the notional exposure of the financial derivative instruments to market movements, this may not be representative of the level of investment risk within the Target Fund.

4.4 Temporary suspension of dealings of shares of the Target Fund

The determination of the net asset value of shares of the Target Fund may be suspended during:

- (a) any period when any of the principal markets or stock exchanges on which a substantial portion of the investments of the Target Fund is quoted or dealt in, is closed otherwise than for ordinary holidays, or during which dealings therein are restricted or suspended; or
- (b) the existence of any state of affairs which constitutes an emergency as a result of which disposal or valuation of assets of the Target Fund would be impracticable; or
- (c) any breakdown in the means of communication or computation normally employed in determining the price or value of the assets of the Target Fund or the current prices or values on any market or stock exchange; or
- (d) any period when the umbrella fund, i.e. JPMorgan Investment Funds, is unable to repatriate funds for purpose of making payments on the redemption of shares or during which any transfer of funds involved in the realisation or acquisition of investments or payments due on redemption of shares cannot in the opinion of its board of directors be effected at normal rates of exchange; or
- (e) any other circumstance or circumstances where a failure to do so might result in the JPMorgan Investment Funds or shareholders of the Target Fund (which includes the Fund) incurring any liability to taxation or suffering other pecuniary disadvantages or other detriment which the JPMorgan Investment Funds or shareholders of the Target Fund (including the Fund) might not otherwise have suffered.

The board of directors of JPMorgan Investment Funds has the power to suspend redemption of shares of the Target Fund for any period during which the determination of the net asset value per share of the Target Fund is suspended by the JPMorgan Investment Funds by virtue of the powers described above. Any redemption made or in abeyance during such a suspension period may be withdrawn by written notice to be received by the JPMorgan Investment Funds before the end of such suspension period. Should such withdrawal not be effected, the shares in question shall be redeemed on the first valuation day of the Target Fund following the termination of the suspension period. In the event of such period being extended, the Fund will be notified. Investors of the Target Fund, including the Fund, who have requested the redemption of the shares of the Target Fund, shall be informed of such suspension when such request is made.

Should there be a temporary suspension of determination of net asset value of the shares of the Target Fund, the Fund will be notified in writing of any such suspension of the right to subscribe or to redeem shares of the Target Fund and will be promptly notified upon the extension or termination of such suspension of dealings with the Target Fund.

Should the Target Fund suspend its determination of net asset value of the shares, the pricing of Units will immediately be suspended and the Fund will also temporarily suspend all sales and redemptions of Units. Unit Holders will also be notified and kept informed in such an instance.

4.5 Deferral of redemptions of shares of the Target Fund

If the total requests from redemptions of the Target Fund on any valuation day for the Target Fund exceeds 10% of the total number of shares in issue for the Target Fund, JPMAM Europe may decide that redemption requests in excess of 10% shall be deferred until the next valuation day. On the next Target Fund's valuation day or valuation days until completion of the original requests, deferred requests will be dealt with in priority to later requests.

If the Fund's redemption requests are deferred by JPMAM Europe, the Fund will be notified and, this may delay the Fund's payment of redemption request to Unit Holders. Should this occur, the Manager will pay the redemption proceed to Unit Holders within ten (10) business days after receipt by the Manager of the redemption proceeds from JPMAM Europe or its agent.

4.6 Merger or liquidation of the Target Fund

The board of directors of JPMorgan Investment Funds may decide to liquidate the Target Fund if the net assets of the Target Fund fall below USD 20 million or if a change in the economic or political situation relating to the Target Fund would justify such liquidation. The decision to liquidate will be published by JPMorgan Investment Funds prior to the effective date of the liquidation and the publication will indicate the reasons for, and the procedures of, the liquidation operations. Unless the board of directors of JPMorgan Investment Funds otherwise decides in the interests of, or to keep equal treatment between the shareholders of all its sub-funds, the shareholders of the Target Fund may continue to request redemption of their shares free of charge. Assets which are not distributed upon the close of the liquidation of the Target Fund will be transferred to the Caisse de Consignation on behalf of those entitled within the time period prescribed by the Luxembourg laws and regulations and shall be forfeited in accordance with Luxembourg law.

Under the circumstances as provided above, the board of directors of JPMorgan Investment Funds may decide to close down the Target Fund or its share classes by merger into another sub-fund of JPMorgan Investment Funds (the "new sub-fund") or class (the "new share class"). In addition, such merger may be decided by the board of directors of JPMorgan Investment Funds if required by the interest of the shareholders of the JPM GMO or the JPM GMO share class in concern. Such decision will be notified to the Fund and the notification will contain information in relation to the new sub-fund or new share class. This notification will be made within one month before the last day on which the shareholders of the Target Fund may request their redemption of their shares, free of charge, before, the operation involving contribution into the new sub-fund or share class becomes effective.

In the event of a notification of a liquidation of the Target Fund or an exercise to merge the Target Fund which the Fund is investing in with a new sub-fund, the Manager will call a Unit Holder's meeting to close the Fund or replace the Target Fund with another target fund or such other next course of action.

4.7 Compulsory redemption of shares of the Target Fund

The board of directors or the management company of JPMorgan Investment Funds may, at its sole discretion and in accordance with the provisions of the articles of the JPMorgan Investment Funds, proceed with the compulsory redemption of the shares of the Target Fund if it appears to the board of directors or the management company of JPMorgan Investment Funds that such holding of the shares of the Target Fund might:

- (i) result in a breach of any applicable Luxembourg or foreign law or regulation,
- (ii) result for the JPMorgan Investment Funds or its shareholders to suffer adverse regulatory, tax or fiscal consequences or
- (iii) be detrimental to the interests of the JPMorgan Investment Funds (including its shareholders).

Where it appears that the Fund should be precluded from holding shares of the Target Fund, the board of directors or the management company of JPMorgan Investment Funds may compulsorily redeem all shares so held in accordance with the provisions of the articles of the JPMorgan Investment Funds.

If a compulsory redemption of shares of the Target Fund is imposed on the Fund, a Unit Holders meeting will be called to decide on the next course of action.

4.8 Restrictions on subscriptions of the Target Fund

The Target Fund or the shares of JPM C (acc) – USD (hedged) of the Target Fund may be closed to new subscriptions (but not to redemptions) if, in the opinion of the management company of JPMorgan Investment Funds, closing is necessary to protect the interest of existing shareholders of the Target Fund. Without limiting the circumstances where closing may be appropriate, one such circumstance would be where the Target Fund has reached a size such that the capacity of the market and/or the capacity of the investment manager of the Target Fund has been reached, and where to permit further inflows would be detrimental to the performance of the Target Fund.

If this occurs, the Fund will be notified and Unit Holders will be notified accordingly on the next course of action, which may also extend to the calling of a Unit Holders meeting by the Manager to decide on the next course of action.

5. PERMITTED INVESTMENTS AND RESTRICTIONS

The Fund will invest in one collective investment scheme i.e. JPMorgan Investment Funds – Global Macro Opportunities Fund, trade in financial derivatives, invest in money market instruments and make Placements of Cash with any financial institutions, and any other investments as agreed between the Trustee and the Manager from time to time, provided that there is no inconsistency with the Fund's objective.

RHB GLOBAL MACRO OPPORTUNITIES FUND

In undertaking the Fund's investments, the Fund must not invest in a fund-of-funds, a feeder fund, or any sub-fund of an umbrella scheme which is a fund-of-funds or a feeder fund.

6. RISK FACTORS OF THE FUND

6.1 General Risks of Investing in a Wholesale Fund

The following are general risks involved in investing in this Fund:

(a) Redemption risk

The ability of the Fund to honour request for redemption in a timely manner is subject to the Fund's holding of adequate liquid assets and/or its ability to borrow on a temporary basis as permitted by the relevant laws. In the event there is insufficient liquid assets, the Manager may have to liquidate the Fund's investment at an unfavourable price.

(b) Returns are not guaranteed

There is no guarantee on the investment returns to Unit Holders.

6.2 Specific Risks when Investing in this Fund

(a) Management risk

As the Fund invests at least 95% of NAV in the Target Fund, it is subject to the management risk of the management company and investment managers of the Target Fund. Poor management of the Target Fund by the Target Fund's management company will jeopardise the investments of the Fund in the Target Fund and in turn, the Unit Holders' investments through the risk of reduced returns and in some cases loss of capital invested in the Fund.

(b) Liquidity risk

The Fund is also exposed to liquidity risk as there is no secondary market for the Target Fund. Investments in the Target Fund can only be liquidated with the manager of the Target Fund or its appointed agents.

(c) Country risk

As the Target Fund is domiciled in Luxembourg, the Target Fund is subject to country risk. The Fund's investments in the Target Fund may be adversely affected by political instability as well as exchange controls, changes in taxation, foreign investment policies, restrictions on repatriation of investments and other restrictions and controls which may be imposed by the relevant authorities in Luxembourg. This in turn may cause the NAV to fall.

(d) Currency risk

The impact of the exchange rate movement between the base currency of the Fund (i.e. USD) and the differing currency of a class (i.e. RM class) may result in a depreciation of the investor's holdings as expressed in the base currency of the Fund.

RHB GLOBAL MACRO OPPORTUNITIES FUND

6.3 Specific Risks of the Target Fund

Investments of the Target Fund are subject to the following risks:

(a) Market risk

The Target Fund is subject to normal market fluctuations and other risks inherent in investing in securities. There can be no assurance that any appreciation in value of investments will occur. The value of the Target Fund's investments and the income derived from them can fall as well as rise due to economic, political and/or other factors. Investors might not get back the sum originally invested by them. There is no assurance that the investment objective of the Target Fund (or the Fund) will actually be achieved.

(b) Equity risk

The performance of the equities held by the Target Fund is also dependent on company specific factors like the company's business situation. If the company-specific factors deteriorate, the price of the specific equity may drop significantly and permanently. Such event could possibly occur even in a positive equity market trend.

(c) Debt securities risk

Investing in securities such as bonds may be affected by credit quality considerations and changes to prevailing interest rates. The issuer of a bond or other debt security (including, but not limited to, governments and their agencies, states and provincial governmental entities, supranationals and companies) may default on its obligations by failing to make payments dues, or repay principal and interest in a timely manner which will affect the value of debt securities held by the Target Fund. These risks are typically increased for emerging market and below investment grade debt securities.

(d) Interest rate risk

Debt securities are particularly susceptible to interest rate changes and may experience significant price volatility. If interest rates increase, the value of a Target Fund's investments generally declines, and vice versa. The value of debt securities held by the Target Fund may change significantly depending on economic and interest rate conditions as well as the credit worthiness of the issuer.

(e) Below investment grade and unrated debt securities risk

Investment grade bonds are assigned ratings (rated Baa3/BBB – or higher) by independent rating agencies (e.g. Moody's, Standard & Poor's, Fitch) on the basis of the creditworthiness or risk of default of a bond issue. Rating agencies review may be downgraded in rating if economic circumstances impact the relevant bond issues. In the event of a downgrading of the credit rating of a security or an issuer relating to a security that the Target Fund invests in, the value of the Target Fund may be affected.

The Target Fund may invest in below investment grade and unrated debt securities which are generally accompanied by a higher degree of counterparty risk, credit risk and liquidity risk than higher rated, lower yielding securities. In addition, the credit worthiness of unrated debt securities is not measured by an independent credit rating agency.

RHB GLOBAL MACRO OPPORTUNITIES FUND

(f) Emerging markets risk

The Target Fund may invest in emerging and less developed markets where the legal, judicial and regulatory infrastructure is still developing and there is much legal uncertainty both for local market participants and their overseas counterparts. Investments in emerging markets may be subject to increased political, regulatory and economic instability, less developed custody and settlement practices, poor transparency and greater financial risks. Emerging market currencies may be subject to volatile price movements. Emerging market and below investment grade debt securities may also be subject to higher volatility and lower liquidity than non emerging market and investment grade debt securities respectively.

(g) Currency Hedged Share Class risk

Investors should be aware that whilst the intention will be to hedge the value of the net assets in the reference currency of the Target Fund (i.e. EURO) or the currency exposure of certain (but not necessarily all) assets of the Target Fund into either the reference currency of the currency hedged share class (i.e. USD), the currency hedging process may not give a precise hedge. Furthermore, there is no guarantee that the hedging will be totally successful.

The Fund's investment in the Target Fund's currency hedged share class may have exposure to currencies other than USD and may also be exposed to the risks associated with the instruments used in the hedging process.

(h) Derivatives risk

Due to the low margin deposits normally required in trading financial derivative instruments, a higher degree of leverage is typical for trading in financial derivative instruments. As a result, a relatively small price movement in a derivative contract may result in substantial losses to the investor. Investment in derivative transactions may result in losses in excess of the amount invested.

The Target Fund may take short positions on a security through the use of financial derivative instruments in the expectation that their value will fall in the open market. The possible loss from taking a short position on a security differs from the loss that could be incurred from a cash investment in the security; the former may be unlimited as there is no restriction on the price to which a security may rise, whereas the latter cannot exceed the total amount of the cash investment. The short selling of investments may also be subject to changes in regulations, which could impose restrictions that could adversely impact returns to investors (including the Fund).

The value of financial derivative instruments can be volatile. This is because a small movement in the value of the underlying asset can cause a large movement in the value of the financial derivative instrument and therefore, investment in such instruments may result in losses in excess of the amount invested by the Target Fund.

Hence, investments in financial derivative instruments by the Target Fund may result in high volatility in its net asset value, and as the Fund is principally invested in the Target Fund, there may also be high volatility in the Net Asset Value.

Investors are advised to read the information memorandum and obtain professional advice before subscribing to Units.

It is important to note that events affecting the investments cannot always be foreseen. Therefore, it is not always possible to protect your investment against all risks.

RHB GLOBAL MACRO OPPORTUNITIES FUND

The investments of the Fund carry risks and we recommend that you read the whole information memorandum to assess the risks of the Fund.

7. PRICING POLICY

Selling Price is the price (before adding any sales charge) payable by an investor or a Unit Holder for the purchase of a Unit ("Selling Price").

The Selling Price shall be the NAV per Unit of the respective Class as at the next valuation point of the relevant Business Day ("forward pricing") after the application for Units is received by the Manager.

A sales charge will be computed separately based on the investment amount/purchase amount, net of bank charges, if any.

Repurchase Price is the price (before deducting any repurchase charge) payable by the Manager to a Unit Holder pursuant to the repurchase of a Unit ("Repurchase Price").

The Repurchase Price shall be the NAV per Unit of the respective Class as at the next valuation point of the relevant Business Day ("forward pricing") after the repurchase request is received by the Manager.

A repurchase charge may be computed separately based on the withdrawal amount/repurchase amount.

The NAV is determined by deducting the value of all the Fund's liabilities from the value of all the Fund's assets, at the valuation point. The NAV per Unit is determined when the NAV is divided by the total number of the Units in circulation at that valuation point.

The NAV per Unit will be made available on our website, http://www.rhbgroup.com.

8. VALUATION OF ASSETS

The Fund must be valued at least once every Business Day. However, the Target Fund in which the Fund invests in performs its valuation for its relevant business day on the day following its relevant business day.

Accordingly, the valuation of the Fund for the relevant Business Day will be conducted before 5.00 p.m. on the following day in which the Manager is open for business, when the valuation of the Target Fund would have been obtained from the Target Fund's management company.

As such, the daily price of the Fund for a particular Business Day will not be published in the newspaper on the next day but will instead be published the next following day (i.e. price will be two (2) days old). This will be specifically indicated in the newspapers.

Investors may however obtain the most current computed price by contacting the Manager directly or visiting our website, http://www.rhbgroup.com.

In undertaking any of the Fund's investments, the Manager will ensure that all the assets of the Fund will be valued appropriately, that is, at market value, failing which, such assets will be valued at fair value and at all times in compliance with the relevant laws (including approved accounting standards).

RHB GLOBAL MACRO OPPORTUNITIES FUND

Accordingly:

- (i) The shares of the Target Fund, will be valued by reference to the Target Fund's management company last published repurchase price of a share of the Target Fund for the relevant Business Day.
- (ii) Financial derivatives positions will be "marked-to-market" at the close of each trading day.
- (iii) Placements of Cash will be valued each day by reference to the principal value of such investments and the interest accrued thereon for the relevant period.
- (iv) Money market instruments will be valued each day based on the accretion of discount or amortisation of premium or on a yield to maturity basis.
- (v) Foreign exchange translation of investments not denominated in the base currency of the Fund into USD (i.e. the base currency of the Fund) for a particular Business Day is determined based on the bid rate quoted by Bloomberg or Reuters at 4.00 p.m. (United Kingdom time) or such other time as may be prescribed from time to time by the relevant laws.

9. POLICY ON REBATES AND SOFT COMMISSION

Any rebate on brokerage fees or shared commissions is to be credited into the accounts of the Fund. Goods and services ("soft commission") received are retained by the Manager or its delegate only if the goods and services are of demonstrable benefit to the Unit Holders such as research materials and computer software incidental to the investment management of the Fund.
