	Derivative Investments for Hedging Purposes Only The Fund may employ derivative investments for hedging purposes only by participating in instruments such as forward contracts and cross currency swaps. Foreign exchange contracts enable the Fund to trade currency at a specific exchange rate, specific time and specific amount as indicated in the contract. Cross currency swaps allow the Fund to convert foreign exchange rates and/or interest rate exposures between two currencies. These derivatives may be used to hedge the principal and/or the returns of the foreign currency denominated investments back to RM. The employment of derivatives under these circumstances, is expected to reduce the impact of foreign currency movements on the Fund's NAV.

Asset Management

5. What are the possible outcomes of my investment?

This is an equity fund that invests in domestic and foreign equities. The Fund's exposure into foreign equities will be focused within the Asia Pacific (ex Japan) companies. The performance of the Fund would be dependent on the Asia Pacific (ex Japan) equity markets that are investable by the Fund. The Fund's performance is also reliant on the Manager's expertise in managing the Fund to meet its objective.

The Fund's investment into equities and equity-linked instruments would to a great extent, to be linked to the price movements of the global equity markets, and the underlying assets of the collective investment schemes. If the equities that are investable by the Fund performs well, the Fund's performance may reflect the same. However, should the local and foreign equities that are investable by the Fund perform poorly, the Fund's performance may also be impacted negatively.

Unlike fixed deposits which generally provide a guarantee on capital invested and a fixed rate of return, the Fund's does not provide a guarantee on capital contributed nor does it guarantee a fixed rate of return.

The Fund is expected to distribute income on a semi-annual basis, subject to income availability. Due to investments in equities, the Manager expects the Fund to yield incidental growth in capital.

KEY RISKS

6. What are the key risks associated with this product?

General risks

- Fund management risk – This risk refers to the day-to-day management of the Fund which will impact the performance of the Fund.
- Inflation risk – This is the risk that your investment in the Fund may not grow or generate income at a rate that keeps pace with inflation. This would reduce your purchasing power even though the value of the investment in monetary terms has increased.
- Liquidity risk – Liquidity risk refers to two scenarios. The first is where an investment cannot be sold due to unavailability of a buyer for that investment. The second scenario exists where the investments, by its nature, is thinly traded. This will have the effect of causing the investment to be sold below its fair value which would adversely affect the NAV of the Fund. Upon such event and in the best interest of the Unit Holders, the Trustee may suspend the repurchase of Units requests.
- Loan financing risk – This risk occurs when you take a loan/financing to finance your investment. The inherent risk of investing with borrowed money includes you being unable to service the loan repayments. In the event Units are used as collateral, you may be required to top-up your existing instalment if the prices of Units fall below a certain level due to market conditions. Failing which, the Units may be sold at a lower NAV per Unit as compared to the NAV per Unit at the point of purchase towards settling the loan.
- Operational risk – This risk refers to the possibility of a breakdown in our internal controls and policies. The breakdown may be a result of human error, system failure or fraud where employees collude with one another. This risk may cause monetary loss and/or inconvenience to you.

Specific risks

- Stock specific risk – Prices of a particular stock may fluctuate in response to the circumstances affecting individual companies such as adverse financial performance, news of a possible merger or loss of key personnel of a company. Any adverse price movement of such stock will adversely affect the Fund's NAV.
- Warrants investment risk – The value of the warrants will depend on the pricing of the underlying security whereby the growth and performance prospect of the underlying security would consequentially affect the value of the warrants. In addition, the value of the warrants may decrease exponentially as the warrants approach its maturity date and the potential gains from a favourable price movement of the underlying may be offset by aggressive time decay.
- Currency risk – As the investments of the Fund may be denominated in currencies other than the Base Currency, any fluctuation in the exchange rate between the Base Currency and the currencies in which the investments are denominated may have an impact on the value of these investments.

Asset Management

Currency risk at the Fund level

The impact of the exchange rate movement between the Base Currency of the Fund and the currency of the underlying investments may result in a depreciation of the value of the investments as expressed in the Base Currency of the Fund.

Currency risk at the Class level

The impact of the exchange rate movement between the Base Currency of the Fund and the currency of the Class (other than RM Class) may result in a depreciation of your holdings as expressed in the Base Currency of the Fund.

- Country risk – Investments of the Fund in any countries may be affected by changes in the economic and political climate, restriction on currency repatriation or other developments in the law or regulations of the countries in which the Fund invests in.

Note: Please refer to the Prospectus for further details on the general and specific risks.

It is important to note that events affecting the investments cannot always be foreseen. Therefore, it is not possible to protect investments against all risks. Income return = Income distribution per Unit / NAV per Unit ex-date

Total return = (1+Capital return) x (1+Income return) – 1
